

adventures happen when you walk!

Getting to school is more fun on foot

Walking, running, skipping, hopping and scooting are all good for your body – and they're way more fun than sitting still in a car or bus. Why not ask the grown-up who takes you to school if you can walk some or all of the way?