

Care Quality Commission – Overall Quality Score

Why this fact is important

This measure shows the overall quality score rating for the NHS trust each hospital belongs to. Ratings are given as excellent, good, fair or weak. They are provided by the Care Quality Commission, the NHS regulator for England.

Things to note

This rating does not apply to independent hospitals.

This data is taken from Care Quality Commission for 1 April 2008 to 31 March 2009

Data source

Care Quality Commission

Time period

1 April 2008 to 31 March 2009

Further information

More information about the Care Quality Commission's annual health check.